
Some Footnote and Bibliography Formats:

Please follow the APA or MLA Bibliographic formats whenever possible.

In constructing your own footnotes and references from online resources, you can consult the following examples to provide you with guidelines about the needed components and sequence of information that should be contained in a citation (footnote or endnote) and a Reference (in the Bibliography).

Examples from Gary's & Monica's paper sources....(in class on 17 August 2018).

..... In 1921 Japan's crown prince visited England to have suits made.⁵
